ARTIST STATEMENT

My printmaking practice is centred around reduction linocuts, often built through multiple layers of carving and printing. Each work evolves slowly, becoming a labour of love through detail, texture, and process.
My paintings, in oil and acrylic, are bright, bold, and colourful explorations of Australian suburbia, with a particular focus on the Australian backyard. Major series include The Disappearance of the Australian Backyard, Backyard Swimming Pools, Subtracted Suburbia, and works inspired by the iconic Olivers Hill.. Key influences include Howard Arkley, Jeffrey Smart, David Hockney, and Reg Mombassa.

BACKGROUND

I began my creative career as a photographer in London. After being accepted into the London University of Fine Art Photography program, I moved to New York, where I joined the Hamptons Photography Group and established my own photography business.
In 2001, I returned to Australia and later completed a Diploma of Visual Arts in 2009, followed by a Certificate IV in Workplace Training and Assessment in 2010. In 2017, I graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Fine Art and Visual Culture from Curtin University.
I now operate a printmaking studio, Peninsula Printmakers, from my home on the Mornington Peninsula, where I teach workshops, develop new work, and exhibit regularly throughout Melbourne and regional Victoria.
